

Villaggio Bridge Club

Information Updated: March 13, 2022

Description:

The Villaggio Bridge Club (VBC) is created to provide a socially meaningful activity through participation in the card game of bridge for residents of the Villaggio community. The VBC will not be involved in, nor support any political or religious activities and will operate in a not-for profit manner. The VBC will provide both competitive and non-competitive opportunities for members who chose either or both. Members will be encouraged to participate in activities which promote the knowledge and enjoyment of the game of bridge. Discrimination as to race, religion, creed, ability, stature, age, gender, will not be tolerated.

2. Duplicate Game

It was decided to continue holding the Bridge Club duplicate game on Tuesday evenings at 7:00 pm. Resumption of the duplicate game will begin on March 15th. The Duplicate Game Committee will consist of Lew Eisenberg, Gary Gellman, Joan Fiedler, Ina Karpoff and Sandy Turmarken. Eileen Cohen will supply candy for the game.

3. Open Social Game

The open social game will continue to be held Monday and Thursday afternoon, beginning at 1:00. Any club member who shows up is welcome to play. Players rotate in and out of the game, so that all who show up can participate.

4. Treasury and Dues

The club treasury currently has $2,500. There will be no dues for 2022. New members are welcome to join the bridge club, and will not owe dues for 2022. Dues for the 2023 calendar year will be collected, beginning in December 2022.

5. Social Event

Following a suggestion from Susan Cohen, there will be a social gathering in late November or early December 2022 for Bridge Club members.

Possible formats for the event might be a luncheon, or a pizza party before the Tuesday evening duplicate game. An Entertainment Committee was formed to plan the event. Members are Susan Cohen, Lew Eisenberg, Cory Gillman and Ina Karpoff
